ATTRACTIONS

The possibilities of what you could in a day in Miami go on and on. Because Miami has more things to see and do than just about any place you can think of. Miami is a sophisticated city with an international flair and one of the most popular tourist destinations in the world.

Greater Miami and the Beaches offer more fun attractions than you could fit into one vacation. Just to give you a few ideas there are: swimming with the dolphins, riding an airboat, strolling through a museum, a visit to the beautiful Everglades, a tour of a mansion with a formal garden and beautiful artifacts, a trip to Little Havana, incredible shopping, a jungle with all types of animals to interface with, boating, fishing, sightseeing, casinos and so much more. There's everything from a trip around the world at Zoo Miami. You will come face to face with the animals that are free to roam. You will see flamingos, komodo dragons, rhinos, tigers and monkeys just to name a few.
